Kansas Pest Control Association Hires Compelling Communications

St. Louis, MO – The Board of Directors of the Kansas Pest Control Association has hired the services of Compelling Communications to redesign the association’s web site and create promotional materials for the group.

Compelling Communications has developed and maintains websites for the Georgia Pest Control Association, the Illinois Pest Control Association and the New York State Pest Management Association. In addition, the company develops and produces association newsletters for the Iowa Pest Management Association and the Illinois Pest Control Association.

“We enjoy working with pest control associations because of the important role they play in the pest management industry,” explains owner June Van Klaveren.

Compelling Communications specializes in helping pest control companies and associations market their services and can be reached at 800-779-0067 or through the website www.CompellingCommunications.com.
